LABOR/MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE TRAINING

Date: Tuesday, June 10, 2008

Time: 5:30pm – 6:00pm Registration
6:00pm – 9:00pm Program

** Light Supper Served 5:30pm ****

Location: CSEA Local 860 Office
595 West Hartsdale Avenue, 1st Fl.
White Plains, New York 10607

Workshop Description:

This 3-hour workshop will offer a variety of ideas for how to start and maintain effective Labor/Management Committees and some of the substantive concerns about how to conduct these meetings. Labor/Management Committees are one vehicle for resolving problems and taking a pro-active approach with the employer to workplace issues. This is an advanced workshop for Local/Unit Officers, Executive Board members, Stewards, Grievance Representatives, and members of existing Labor/Management Committees.

Workshop Goals:

That participants learn:

- The unique role labor/management committees play in workplace “problem solving”
- The “interest based” bargaining technique commonly used for labor/management problem solving
- The elements of an effective operating agreement for the strategic use of labor/management committees
